

Financial Assistance Policy – Plain Language Summary

St. Aloisius Medical Center is committed to helping those that are unable to pay for their hospital bills. As part of that commitment, St. Aloisius Medical Center serves patients and offers financial assistance to those who have a need to receive medically necessary medical services. This is a summary of the St Aloisius Medical Center financial assistance policy.

Availability of Financial Assistance

Financial assistance is available for those that do not have insurance, those that are underinsured, and those that are ineligible for any government health care program such as Medicaid or Medicare. Financial assistance is not an insurance program and eligibility will be determined in accordance with procedures involving an assessment of financial need.

Eligibility Requirements

Eligibility for Financial assistance is determined based on personal and financial information of the household. Patients whose household income is at or below 100% of the Federal Poverty Level are eligible to receive free care. Those with income over 100% the Federal Poverty but below 176% would also be eligible for a discount based on a sliding scale. No person eligible for financial assistance under the Financial Assistance program will be charged more for emergency care or other medically necessary care than amounts generally billed to individuals who have insurance covering such care. Those with sufficient assets or insurance coverage to pay for hospital care may not be eligible for financial assistance.
